It is a community where all pupils are equally valued and respected, irrespective of sex, social background, family circumstances, educational achievement, physical characteristics or intellectual functioning. Pupils experience a sense of caring and belonging, they are treated fairly and their spiritual, moral and religious development is encouraged, as is their intellectual, social and academic development.

3. It is a community where moral values such as honesty, truthfulness, justice, fairness, sensitivity to others and civic responsibilities are nurtured and protected. The justification of these qualities is based on Biblical teaching interpreted through the Church.
4. Glebe National School is part of the local Church communities, the strong links are forged through membership of the Board of Management of members or the Church of Ireland, Methodist and Presbyterian Churches. It is also reflected in visits on a regular basis by the Rector and the Methodist and Presbyterian Clergy.
5. The work of the school is conducted in an atmosphere of tolerance and respect for religious differences. The admission policy of the school often allows for those of other faiths, or none, to become pupils.
6. Religious Education occupies an important position in the school curriculum, generally speaking, all pupils in the school attend classes of Religious Education, with the teaching of doctrine restricted to specific times.

8. The School nurtures freedom of thought and a personal relationship with God, this is most evident in the teaching of Religious Education and in the prayer life of the school community.
9. Pupils should find in Glebe National School and environment which promotes all types of abilities and talents.
