Bible Reading for Today - 1 Corinthians 1: 18-25

¹⁸ For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. ¹⁹ For it is written: 'I will destroy the wisdom of the wise; the intelligence of the intelligent I will frustrate.' ²⁰ Where is the wise person? Where is the teacher of the law? Where is the philosopher of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? ²¹ For since in the wisdom of God the world through its wisdom did not know him, God was pleased through the foolishness of what was preached to save those who believe. ²² Jews demand signs and Greeks look for wisdom, ²³ but we preach Christ crucified: a stumbling-block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, ²⁴ but to those whom God has called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. ²⁵ For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

Collect for Today

Father, by the leadership of your blessed servant Brigid you strengthened the Church in this land: As we give you thanks for her life of devoted service, inspire us with new life and light, and give us perseverance to serve you all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer Points

- Thank God for the way he has worked in Ireland over many centuries.
- Pray for our country, that it will once again be positively shaped by the message of the cross of Christ.

Rector's Thoughts

Last week we heard about the conversion of St Paul and this week we have one of his great passages, about the cross (see reading above).

The message of Christ crucified may seem weak and foolish, but it has triumphed over other philosophies and transformed the world.
