Bible Reading for Today – Isaiah 56: 6-7

⁶ And foreigners who bind themselves to the LORD to minister to him, to love the name of the LORD, and to be his servants, all who keep the Sabbath without desecrating it and who hold fast to my covenant – ⁷ these I will bring to my holy mountain and give them joy in my house of prayer. Their burnt offerings and sacrifices will be accepted on my altar; for my house will be called a house of prayer for all nations.

Collect for Today

O God, you declare your almighty power most chiefly in showing mercy and pity: Mercifully grant to us such a measure of your grace, that we, running the way of your commandments, may receive your gracious promises, and be made partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Rector's Thoughts

"My house will be called a house of prayer for all nations."

(Isaiah 56:7)

In a divided world, it's good to remember that God wants to bring all people together to worship him. The Church is a global family, praise God!

Prayer Points

Thank God for his global plans to bless all nations through the gospel.

Pray for God's word to be shared and believed here and across the world.

Remember all who are unwell, injured, troubled, bereaved, or in any distress.
